

Authors: Jenny Povey, Linda-Dianne Willis, Julie Hodges, Annemaree Carroll, Charley Pedde, Kathryn Good, 2017

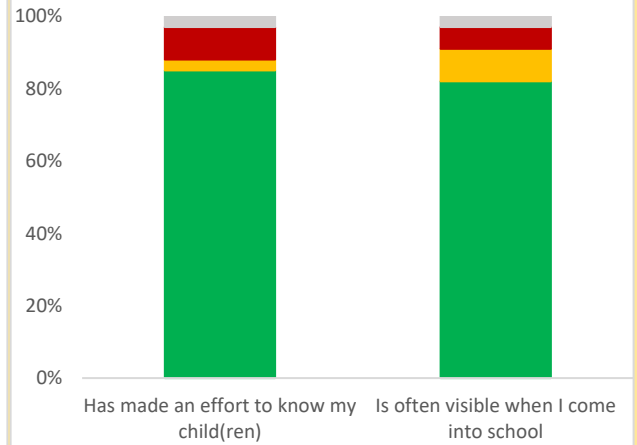

Students

Students form an important link between parents and their schools.

Teachers said: at this school...

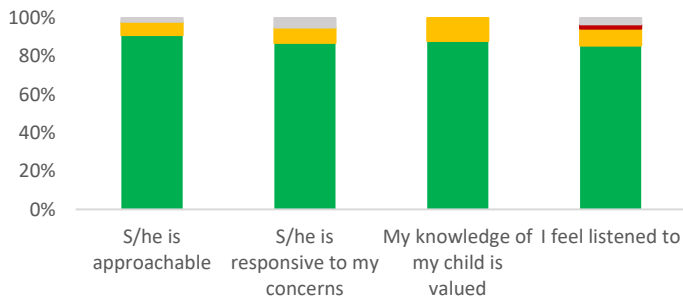

Parents said: the principal...

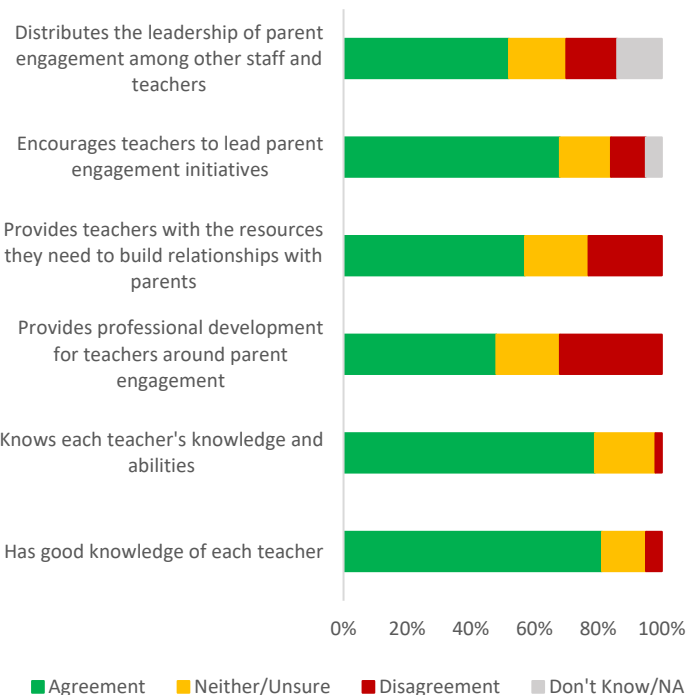

Teachers

Teachers are pivotal for building parent/school relationships.

Parents say: when communicating with my child's teacher...

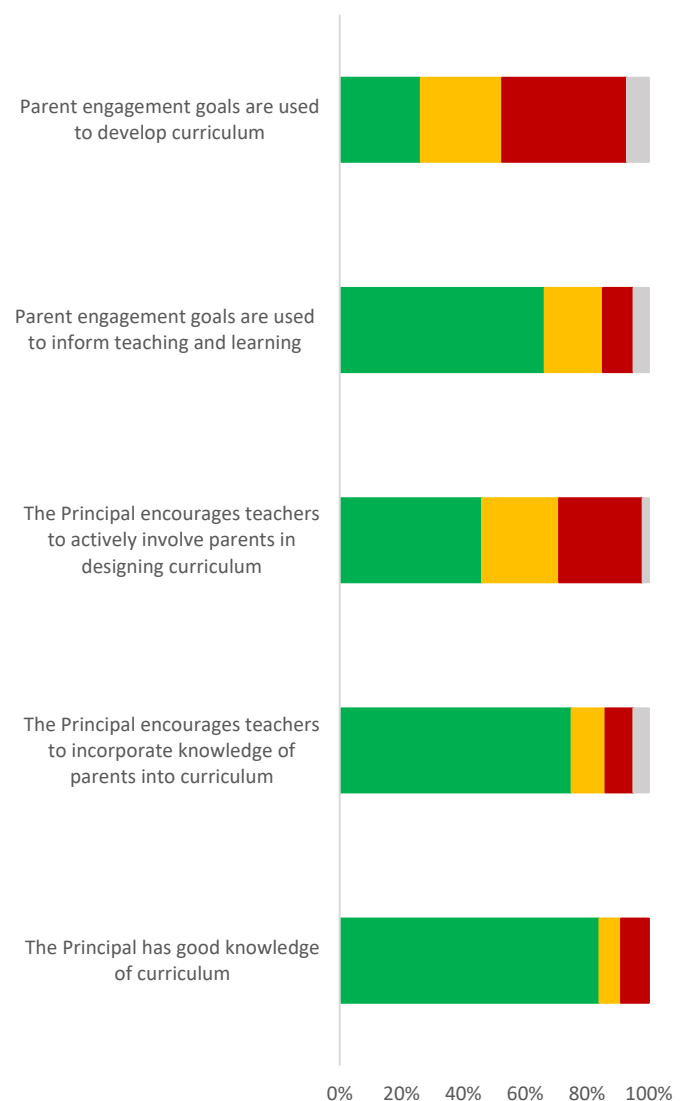

Teachers say: the Principal of this school...

Curriculum

The curriculum opens opportunities to include parent knowledge and skills in student learning.

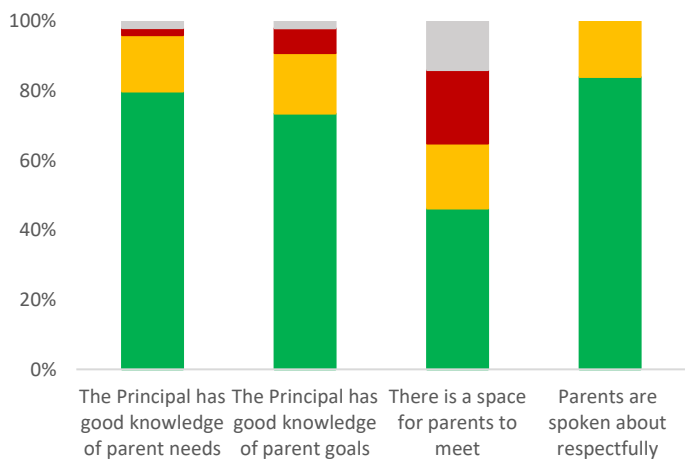

Teachers say: at this school...

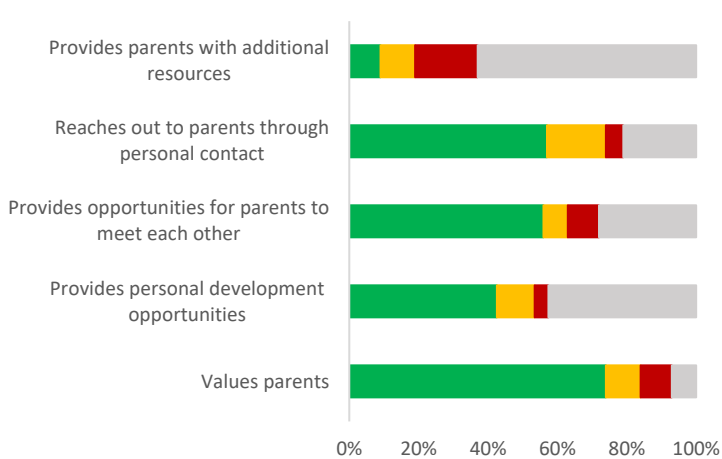

Parent Milieu

Building relationships with parents is integral to parent/school engagement.

Teachers say: at this school...

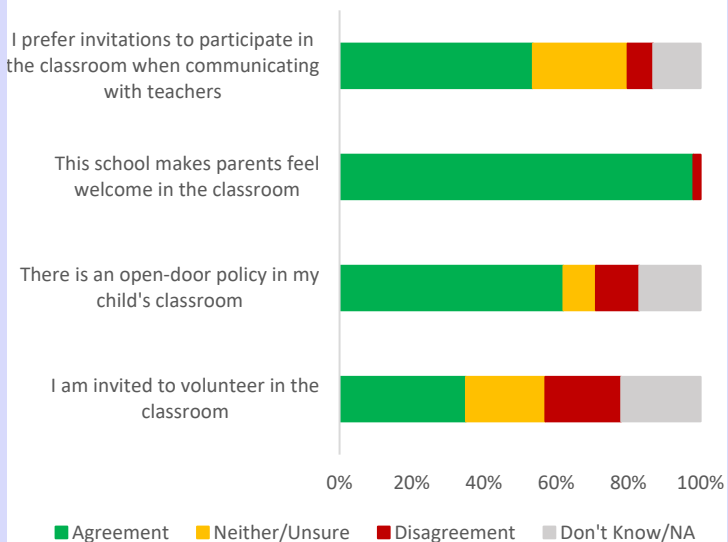

Parents say: my child's school...

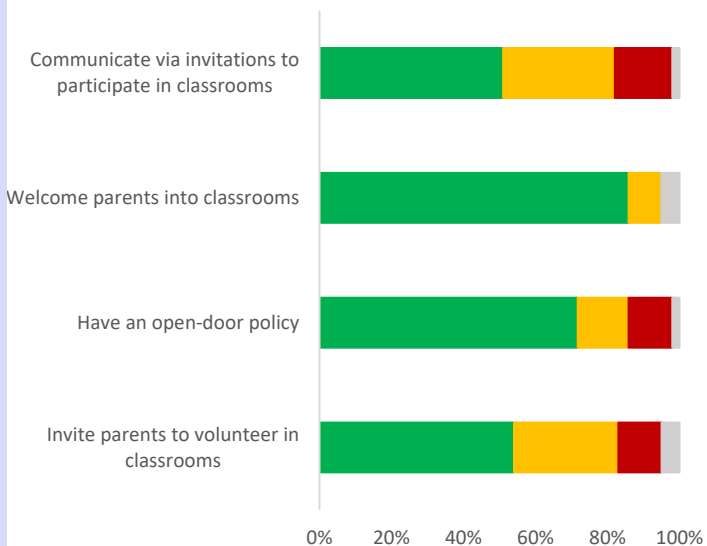

Classroom Milieu

The classroom is an opportunity for parents to participate directly in student learning.

Parents said...

Teachers are encouraged to...

Local Community Milieu

Schools can engage parents through interacting with the local community.

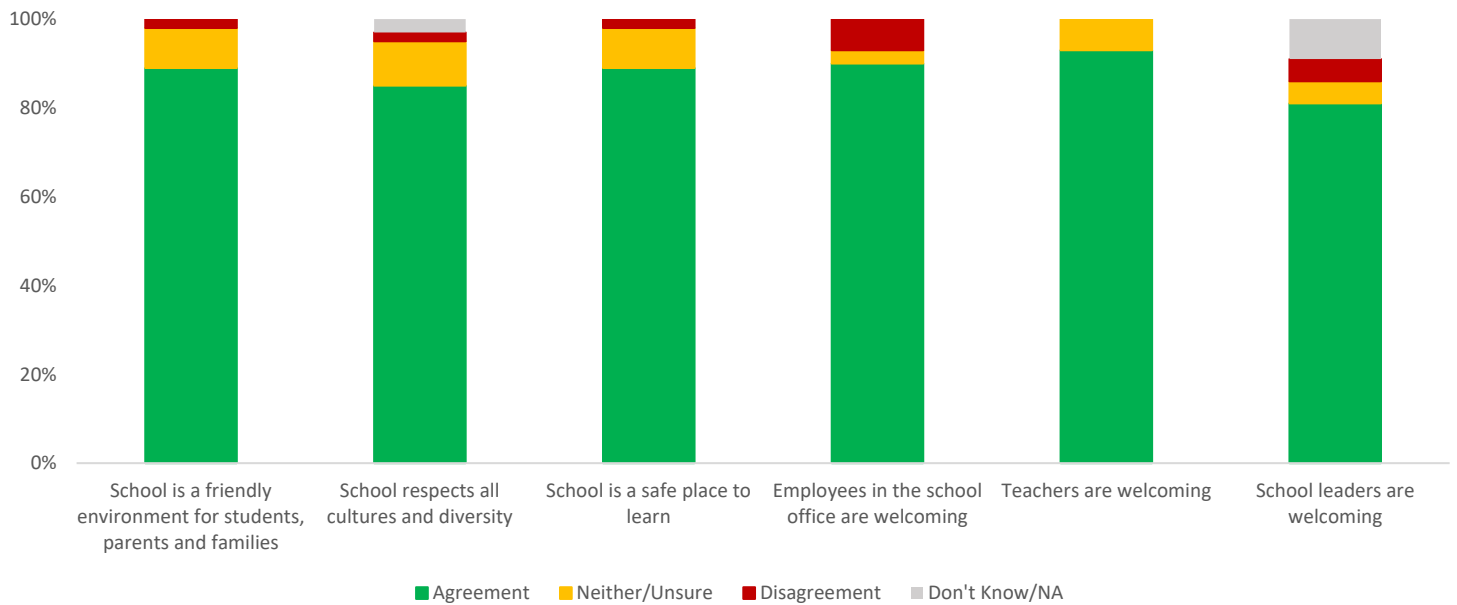

Teachers say: this school...

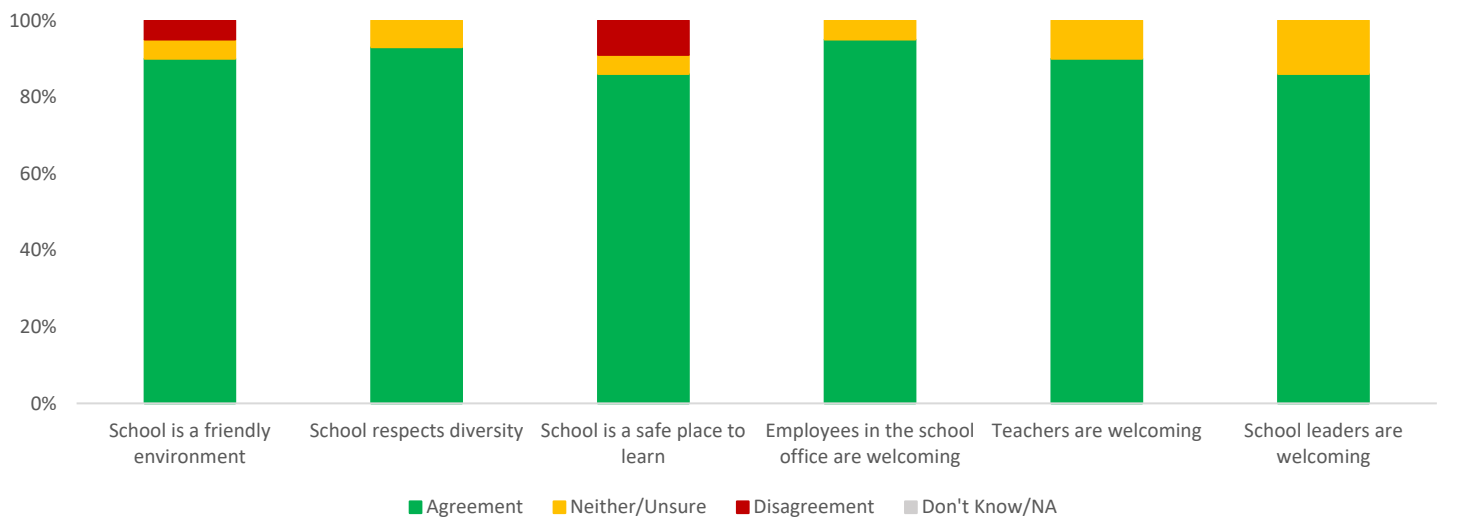

School Milieu

Parent engagement relies on a safe and welcoming school environment.

Parents say...

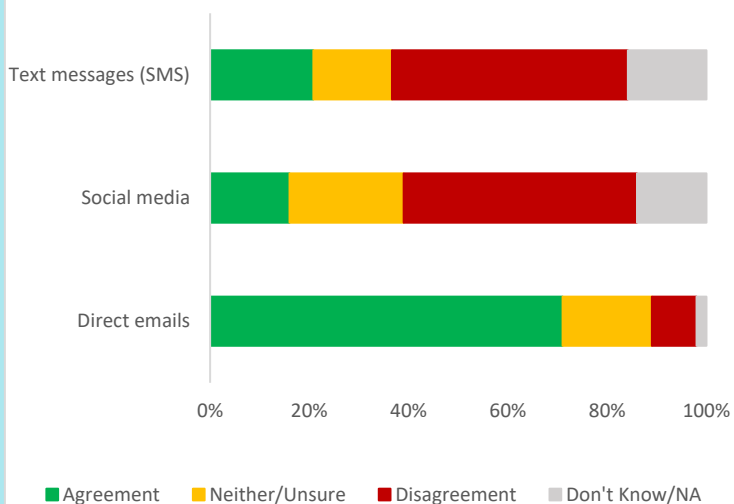

Teachers say...

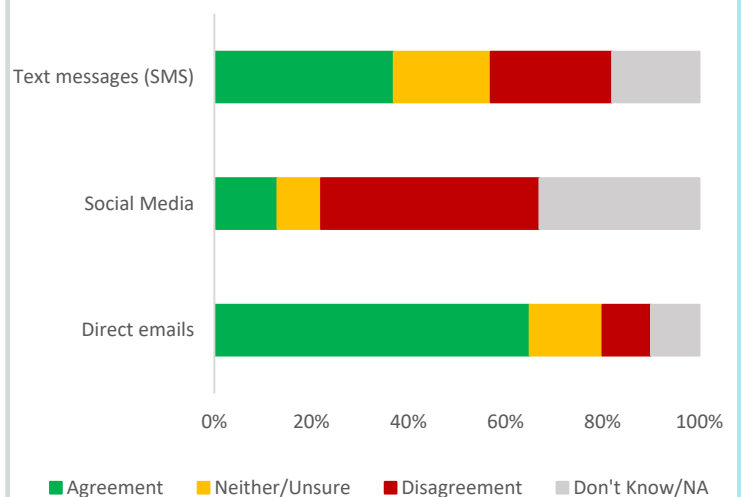

Technology Milieu

Schools use technology in various ways to encourage parent engagement.

School encourages teachers to communicate with parents via...

Parents prefer communicating via...

School	Parents	Teachers	Total
Dragonfly Creek	5	5	10
Warnerville	23	18	41
Reef Island	29	15	44
Scenic View	15	7	22
Total	72	45	117

Note: Pseudonyms have been used

An Education Horizon grant scheme project (2016 – 2017) funded by the Queensland Department of Education and conducted by The University of Queensland with the support of Parents and Citizens Associations Queensland. Researchers: Dr Linda-Dianne Willis, Dr Jenny Povey, Dr Julie Hodges, Prof Annemaree Carroll